

on Wednesday evening couple sunday to Miss Helen Arvey. The young people played "40" until a late hour when a two-course lunch was served. Mrs. F. R. Sanford and Miss Lula See sat at the table and served tea.

Mrs. J. E. Durkee and Miss Ruth Durkee are visiting in Kansas City.

Miss Marie Rice entertained twenty young people with a card-party and dinner Monday evening in honor of Miss Helen Arvey of St. Joe, who is the house-guest of Miss Gladys Van Ness. "500" was played during the first part of the evening and later everybody enjoyed dancing. The hostess served a dainty two course luncheon. Guests other than the honoree were Misses Gladys VanNess, Grace Morris, Lela Bots, Mary Lee Busch, Irene Cluthorn, Margaret Case, Lottie Caldwell, Margaret Jones, Messrs.
Harper VanNess, Jack Cluthorn, Eddie Cluthorn, Charles Jackson, Ardella Buckner, Herbert Plunkett, Turbor Williams, Herbert Bruner, Dr.
Dennis Moore and Maj. Jack Rosenbaum.

Flags out to-morrow. The stars and stripes. Who? Because to-morrow nearly two hundred years ago the United States of America, George Washington was born. We cannot over-bride the day this year, in Colonial style by wearing powdered wig, tight long-waisted dresses whose skirts are wide enough for the wearer to step down any curb in the city. No; much as we would like to, we cannot do this. However, the least that any daughter of the American Revolution or any loyal citizen of the U. S. A. should do is to honor a flag in honor of the man who did so much to bring about this country's freedom. Again, I say, flags-out to-morrow for Washington.

Misses Maebel Hohnen and Nellie Noel, Seniors at McMillan High this year, will make their own graduating gowns. They are the only Seniors in the Domestic Science Department where sewing as well as cooking is taught. The important feature These young women will lift the load of care and endless worry from their parents' shoulders and assume the responsibility of their dress for Commencement. This is an excellent custom and Miss Archie Cook, head of the Domestic Science department is to be congratulated upon instituting it.

If a girl graduated from high school with knowledge enough to make her own clothes and cook good meal besides her other education the curriculum provides, she is certainly a much more useful member of society. The schools are relieving the mother of duties that once were the burdens which worried them "from sun to sun with never getting their work done."

"That the High School is a happy place to live with knowledge enough to find that there are 64 classes a day taught in the one building."

Miss Adelaide Cuthorn, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Adelaide Cuthorn, formerly of Mexico, was married January 22nd, to Raymond William Spick, of Los Angeles, Calif. Many of her friends in Mexico have received announcement cards. Miss Cuthorn was born and reared in Mexico and was quite popular with everyone.
Her new home. She was a beautiful singer and quite talented as an actress and has been on the opera and vaudeville stage in the West. She formerly attended Hards College and was a member of Eta Upsilon Gamma.
The Ledger joins her many friends in extending best wishes and congratulations.

Miss Helen Arvey left Saturday for Elizabet, after a delightful visit with Miss Gladys VanNess. Mr.
Arvey was the recipient of many kind favors while here.

Mrs. E. A. Dearing was hostess of the F. & E. Club Monday afternoon and Mrs. George Rixey of Pelamin and Mrs. Geo. Young of Pelamin, Ore. were guests of Mr.
Mrs. Chas. Carpenter last evening.
Mexico society people are having lots of fun here. The new dance club, who are a number of small classes organized and meet at the differhouses and practice the new steps.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dearing will hostess to the Evening Athletic Club Friday. The Club prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Brett. Geo. other than club members were Messrs. and Meadames W. W. Fry, R. R.
White, W. W. Pollock, L. M. White, J. T. Johnson, L. B. Hawthorne, William Houston, Messrs Sam Locks, George Pearson. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. "Parque" of Milwaukee and Mrs. Frances C.
Clay of Jefferson City. After supper a dainty salad course was served at the tables then the couples paired to the prettily decorated room where Mrs. Pollock served tea and Misses Fry, Hawthorne, Lima and Claybrook passed it.

Really, the dances are not in this bad as some folks persist in thinking. The worst that can be said is that it seems to be very strenuous work and it takes a whole room for couple to go through their gyrations.

Sunday, the 22nd, was George Washington's and Herbert Plunkett's birthdays.

Miss Lula See entertained the home of her sister, Mrs. L. B. White, Friday evening. Cook Clay and Helen Arvey. Other guests were Mrs. F. R. Sanford, L. B. Hawthorne, Frank VanNess, George Pearson, Thorne, Miss Mary Buckner. The elaborate lunch closed a pleasant evening.

Life problems and rural population and made the problem today was to establish social justice in the country and improve social conditions in the country. He presented statistics in support of his statement which shows Audrain, in the past 30 years, had one of a growth in population of an average of 64 persons yearly. He complimented Audrain on its progressive spirit in being among the first to secure a Farm Advisor as well as other modern improvements.

We are overlooking the human race in Audrain, said Mr. Root. Everything that is made in Audrain should be invested here for the children as well as to attract others to this section. He called for social centers, good high schools and better farm houses.

He went on to show if we had the density of population in Audrain that Ohio has, we would have 79,000 population instead of 21,600 and that Mexico would have 23,000 inhabitants. He

The Feast of Goodwill

To Manager Crebs, of the Hotel, was to be complimented upon the delicious menu served and the with which each course was served. There was no delay, the band playing promptly at 8:15, as Mrs. Crebs has only been a short time but has proven a hotel man of ability and an earnest service for the Club has him as a booster for the club as the attendance has steadily since he arrived here.

The menu to be served is as follows:

	Soup
	Consommé
	Roast Beef
	Green Olives
	Baked Red Snapper, Creamed Potatoes
